Become a UniPASS Facilitator

What does it take to become a UniPASS facilitator? We’re looking for you if you:

1. are currently in the 2nd semester or onwards of your course
2. have a credit average across your course
3. achieved a distinction or above in the relevant UniPASS unit(s) that you will be facilitating
4. possess good communication and interpersonal skills; and
5. like to help others to succeed

Benefits of a UniPASS Facilitator

1. Enhance your knowledge and understanding of subject matter.
2. Develop your communication, public speaking, leadership, mentoring and teamwork skills;
3. Able to help others
4. Network with Curtin staff.

How to apply:

To apply, send the following documents to the Dean, Learning and Teaching via email to tangsiewfun@curtin.edu.my including details of your university and community involvement and all work experience to date.

1. One page cover letter detailing the personal details (including your mobile phone number) and qualities you feel you bring to the role and the programme as a whole.
2. A copy of your academic record to date.

Only shortlisted applicants will be invited to join the training.

Kindly email annielg@curtin.edu.my for further UniPASS enquiries.